

The Sunday Review

THE INDEPENDENT ON SUNDAY

26 OCTOBER 2003

Abigail's party-piece

The YBA movement needs publicity like sharks need Damien Hirst. But we're quite taken by this latest escapade, Showroom Dummies, set-up by Brit-artist Abigail Lane. She's infused her macabre style into an interiors collection (showing at the Old St Pancras Conservative Club, London WC1, tel: 020 7278 4123, until 9 November). Peruse pieces including jaunty, skeleton-adorned wallpaper or this card table decorated with a delicately poised lizard.

For more Design, turn to page 47

